FOREWORD

BY WAY OF INTRODUCTION. As we come to you with this volume of "The Bobashela," we do not intend to apologize for the absence of anything of merit, and there is, of course, nothing on the pages that follow but works of merit which need no apology. The desire of the Editor and Managers has been to make this volume a success. Our purpose is to portray college life in all of its phases and to make it such a pleasing portrait that in years to come the students of 1931 may enjoy reviving the memories of perhaps the happiest days of their lives. The association of friends, and often much more than that of friends, which are formed during one's college life, are sometimes the most lasting, and to these pages you may often turn and see the faces of those with whom you have spent so many pleasant hours.

As we submit this book to you, dear friends, it is with the hope that it shall only call forth words of commendation instead of censure. It is not intended to be a perfect production. It is not edited by professionals, but by loyal college students who love their Alma Mater and who are trying to make the present year the brightest in her history. Will you not, then, receive this volume of "The Bobashela" in love and long-suffering kindness, and may it always be a source of gratification to you that you have as your Alma Mater Millsaps College, which this volume attempts to represent.

THE STAFF.

Alma Mater

Alma Mater, dear old Millsaps,
Loyal Sons are we;
Our fond hearts are thine alone
And ever more shall be.

Proud art thou in classic beauty
Of thy noble past,
With thy watchword, Honor, Duty,
Thy high fame shall last.

Every student, man and maiden,
Swell the glad refrain,
'Til the breezes, music laden,
Waft it back again.

Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,
As the swift seasons roll;
Leave thy low-vaulted past;
Let each new temple, nobler than the last,
Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast,
Till thou at last art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea.

In words, as in fashions, the same rule will hold,
A light fantastic, if too new or old:
Be not the first by whom the new are tried,
Nor yet the last to lay the old aside.

FRATERNITIES

When Greek Meets Greek

When Greek meets Greek, no matter where or when,
They forge a chain, the fellowship of men—
Too strong or true for word of tongue or pen;
Knowing that each has been a chosen man,
Knowing that each is a scion of a clan,
Though each has worshipped at an alien shrine,
Back in the dear old days of Auld Lang Syne.

When Greek meets Greek, it is no matter where
The stranger comes from, we are welcome there—
Although our badge be cross, or shield, or square.
For hearts beat ever high and handclasps true,
Though Sigma Chi be he, or Sigma Nu,
Phi Delt, Phi Gam, or Deke,
And college dreams that bless and sometimes burn,
Like half-forgotten memories return,
When Greek meets Greek.

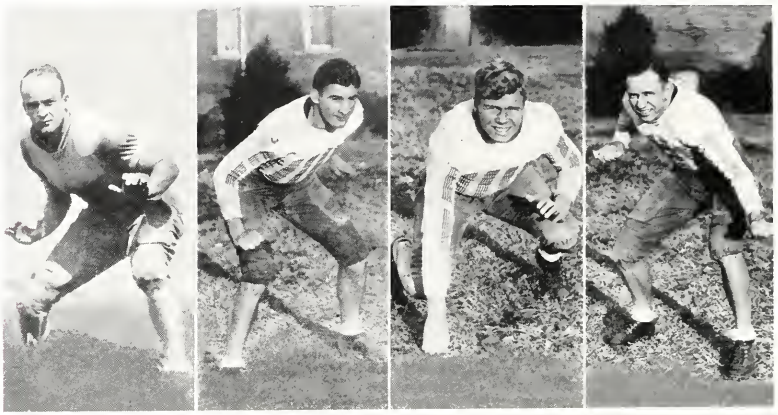
ATHLETICS

The Coaches

Edwin W. Hale has coached his last athletic team at Millsaps, but his splendid work in bringing the Majors to the front in athletics will long be remembered. Coach Hales' three years at Millsaps have truly been successful ones. His football teams always finished near the top in the S. I. A. A. conference standing, and his baseball teams have done almost equally as well. We do not know where "Goat" will be next year, but wherever he is, Millsaps students will be backing him.

As Director of Athletics, Assistant Football Coach, Varsity Basketball Coach, and Freshman Baseball Coach, Coach Van Hook has won himself a place in the hearts of Millsaps students and fans. Coach Van Hook's basketball teams have finished high in the conference standing for the past several years, and the records of his other teams speaks for themselves.

Coach Gaddy comes to Millsaps next year with a great record behind him at Biloxi High School, and Millsaps supporters are hoping that he will continue his good work at Millsaps. Gaddy's Biloxi Indians have not lost a football game for the past three years and have had only three touchdowns scored against them in the last twenty-seven games. We are expecting great things of him at Millsaps.



The Team

Captain "Molly" Maynor has played his last football game for the Majors, but his name will always be a symbol of fight, courage, and dependability. He was good enough to be named on every All-State selection for a tackle position. He was awarded the coveted Brannon Trophy by his team mates. Good luck Molly, Millsaps is proud of you.

"Charlie Strait at left end," and how that boy did throw those Choctaws Thanksgiving. A greater defensive end game was never played by a Major. Maybe that is why Charlie was chosen on the All-State selection. Anyway, he was a real star the whole year through, and the Majors smile at the thought that he will be back next year.

Padgett came straight to the Majors from Clark College and made good from the start. He did much to solve the guard problem. A hard fighter, this lad should have a great year next season.

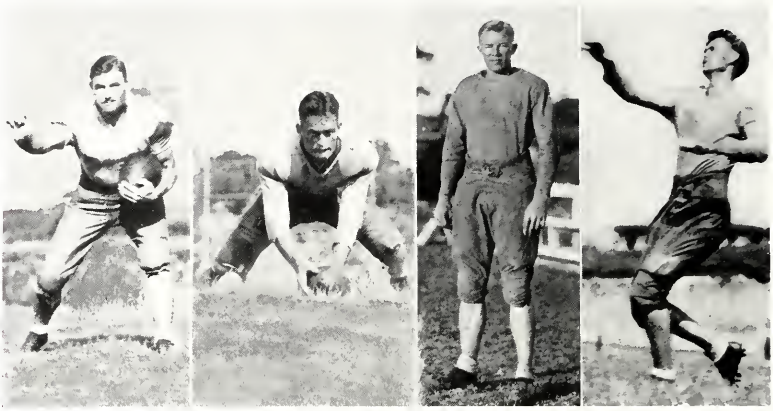
Everyone's hat just naturally goes off to "Eboo" Bell. Although extremely light, he was one of the best ends in the state. Fast and a natural born football player. Could he catch passes? Ask the Choctaws. No one that has seen him in action could forget the Bell pulled down passes for Millsaps. One sport writer acclaimed his work, along with Strait, during the Thanksgiving game, as the greatest ever seen.

Little old Jakie Miller, an All-State selection for a halfback position and Alternate Captain of the Majors, wound up his career Thanksgiving against the Choctaws. Just as his other three years have been, it was a great year for Jakie. Always feared and always watched, Jakie in spite of it all, established himself as the best broken field runner in the state since the days of the truly great Edwin "Goat" Hale.

Little "Goat" Hale, small but always playing the game. For four years Marion has held down the quarterback position for Millsaps' football teams. He has been a good one. A fine kicker, a good passer, and a brainy signal caller. He was always dangerous as a broken field runner. His fighting spirit will carry him to success in life.

Charlie Walker, at one half, played an excellent brand of football. Fast, alert, and shifty, he was one of the mainstays of the backfield. He'll be back next year too.

Moon, a whale of a tackle, played a whale of a game the whole season through, except for several games that he was on the sideline with an injured shoulder. "Dag" is big, rangy, and powerful. The gains over his side of the line were few. Millsaps is expecting much of him next year.



"Fagan" McDaniels started the season off as the best fullback in the state. Just as everyone was admitting it, he suffered a broken leg in the S. T. C. game. The fine work which he did in a few minutes of the Thanksgiving game goes to say there is no describing what he might have done throughout the season had he not been injured. He was selected Alternate Captain for next year's team.

The center position was filled this year by the stellar "Pat" Dunaway, who returned to school after a year's absence. Pat was great to break through the opposing line, and a great man to break up passes. Everyone is glad that this boy has two more years.

The fact that Millsaps lost two good guards last year didn't discourage Coach Hale very much when he saw "Whitie" Travis in action. How this boy can fight. Watch him next year.

Meet the captain of next year's team, "Pep" Permenter. Cool headed under fire, a game, nervy little quarterback, this man is an ideal selection to lead the Majors through their difficult schedule next year. "Pep", do your work as well as "Molly" and Millsaps will be proud of you.

It didn't take "Smiling" Bill Jacobs long to convince Coach Hale and all of the opposition that he was one of the fightin'st guards anywhere. Bill played a good game in every contest this year. He'll be back next year, and look out All-State.

"Dado" Passo filled an end position opposite Strait for the greater part of the season, and he filled it well. A powerful line plunger, Passo was used frequently to bring in a few necessary yards, which he seldom failed to do. He should be at his height next year.

And then there was that guy Stonestreet. What a reputation this boy did make throughout the S. I. A. A. conference. He came to the Majors from the Holmes Aggies. He proved, his first year at Millsaps, that he is one of the finest halfbacks in this part of the country. The "Chocs" should ever be grateful that Mr. Stonestreet was injured too badly to play Thanksgiving. A great runner and passer, he should easily make All-State next year.

Excell Mapp, another good pass receiver, is passing on with the rest of the seniors. He was a good little man and never failed to play good ball when called upon.

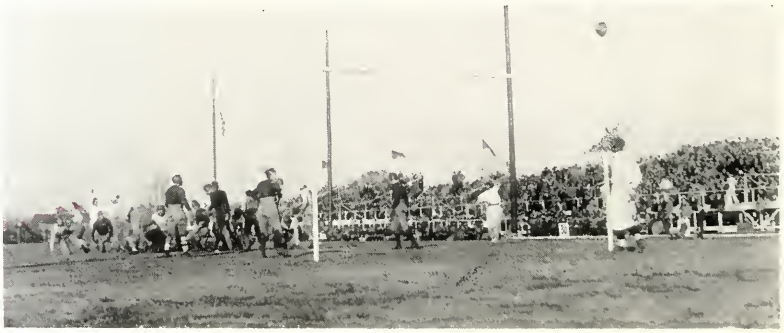
"Luie" Vining did his share in the Majors' good season, by playing the game well as a reserve. He was ready to fill a guard position any time and should be a valuable man next year.

Cotten is probably the lightest man to ever make a letter at Millsaps. Certainly he deserved one, for he did some neat playing when called upon.

Ervin showed the bunch this year that he had the old football spirit. He has great possibilities and the fight to continue.

Faithful Bob Hassell, the boy who never cut practice. Always ready to enter the scrap and a player of ability too. Everyone was glad to see him make a letter his senior year.

Khayat is another reason why the Majors are going to have plenty of backfield material next year. He is fast, a nice passer and one of the best blockers on the squad. He should hit his high stride next year.



L. B. Jones displayed some qualities of real football ability this past season. With more experience he should make a fine back.

It took Smith to cool the Mississippi Aggies down when it seemed that the old game was slipping away. He was a valuable lineman at tackle or guard. In the next two years this man should win recognition.

Enochs was a promising freshman last year and should have stayed out the entire season this year. However, he returned in time to be of service to the team in the game with the Choctaws.

Rigby always gave his best and when he went down, he went down fighting. He was a real scrapper and he has plenty of football ability.

Cecil Jones played his first year with the varsity and needless to say, gained lots of experience. He has good possibilities and the fight to make good.

Looking Backward Over the Year

Another year of athletics at Millsaps has heard its knell sounded, and has passed on into the days of used-to-be. The thud of charging bodies and the "plunk" of the punted football, the "swish" of a clean shot through the basket, the excitement of a conference tournament, the tenseness of a track meet, the "ping" of a hard-hit tennis ball, the sharp "crack" of bat on ball, the cheers and cries of the crowds are gone for this year, and we pause but a moment, as school draws to a close, to reflect on the past and the future.

Although not as consistently successful in all lines of sports as were Millsaps' teams last year, the Majors and Majorettes of 1930-31 kept the standard on the high plane where it has been placed only within recent years. Football was a success, for though the "Chox" downed us by one point, the Majors won great victories over the Aggies, Southwestern, and other worthy opponents. Basketball was the most disappointing sport, though many finely played games brightened a season which no optimist could call as good as last year's. Baseball appears better than ever before, with a flock of mound men to fill what has almost always been the largest gap in a Millsaps nine. Track has at last come out of the realm of the "long-neglected", and, with the new track in order, will from now on have to be seriously reckoned with. Tennis was good, as usual.

In the "1930 Bobashela" there was a statement that Major fans need no longer look to the future, that Millsaps has arrived. That statement is true. We do not any longer talk of "moral victories". We do not now say "next year" with hope and a prayer—we say it with confidence and surety.

Facing a hard schedule, this year's freshman football squad, under the coaching of "Jimmie" Campbell, brought credit to themselves in every game in which they played. Though losing one more game than they won, they showed that next season's team may depend on them for valued reinforcements. Freshman Morrison at tackle, Joe Stone at guard, and Dase Davis and D. Burke in the backfield will undoubtedly be in the lineup next year.

Boys' Basketball

The Majors enjoyed another good season this year. Captain Strait led the Purple and White clad warriors through a tough schedule and the Majors won three-fourths of the games they played. Coach Van Hook's team defeated some of the best basketball teams in the country, including the Earl Cardinals, one of the strongest professional teams in the United States, Southwestern University, Birmingham Southern, and several others.

The loss of two regulars from last year's team caused Coach Van Hook quite a bit of worry at the beginning of the season, but several reserves and transfers from junior colleges came through to make the Majors one of of the best teams in the conference.

Captain Strait, "Little Goat" Hale, and Lewis have finished their basketball careers at Millsaps, but with Stonestreet, Layne, Vickers, Passo, Hull, Permenter, Jones, and several good men from the freshmen team, the Majors of Nineteen thirty-two should be equally as strong as the past one.

The Team

Charlie Strait's basketball days are gone, but they will never be forgotten, for the Major's captain was truly one of the greatest basketball players that the State of Mississippi has ever produced. A fine defensive player, a capable leader, and a long shot artist de-lux, Charlie was always outstanding. It was generally admitted that he was as good as any guard in the S. I. A. A. conference.

Little "Goat" Hale was the key-man of the Millsaps offense, and his performance on the court was always good. He was one of the best floormen in the conference and usually captured scoring honors of the game. "Goat", Millsaps is proud of you.

"Pep" Parmenter always played good ball when called upon. A cool player under fire, and a good eye for the wicker, he should have a great season next year.

Excell Mapp will long be remembered by Millsaps for his services rendered to the team. Although a reserve, he was always ready to do his part, and he was a good basketball player.

PASSO is another reason why the Majors had a good season. Fast for a big man and a cripshot artist, he was a good basketball player. He usually made his share of the goals and was a valuable man on the defense. He has one more year with the Majors. Watch him.

"VIC" VICKERS came to the Majors from Sunflower Junior College and made a valuable man from the start Boasting six feet and three inches of horizontal brawn, "Vic" was a power under the enemy goal on the defense and a thorn in the sides of the opponents on the offense. Long will Southwestern Memphis remember him.

The little town of Lumberton has furnished to the Majors a modern giant in the person of "DAGO" MOON, and that alone would entitle her to the respect of Millsaps' students and fans. "Dago" was capable of playing a good brand of ball and the Majors' man mountain never failed in the pinch.

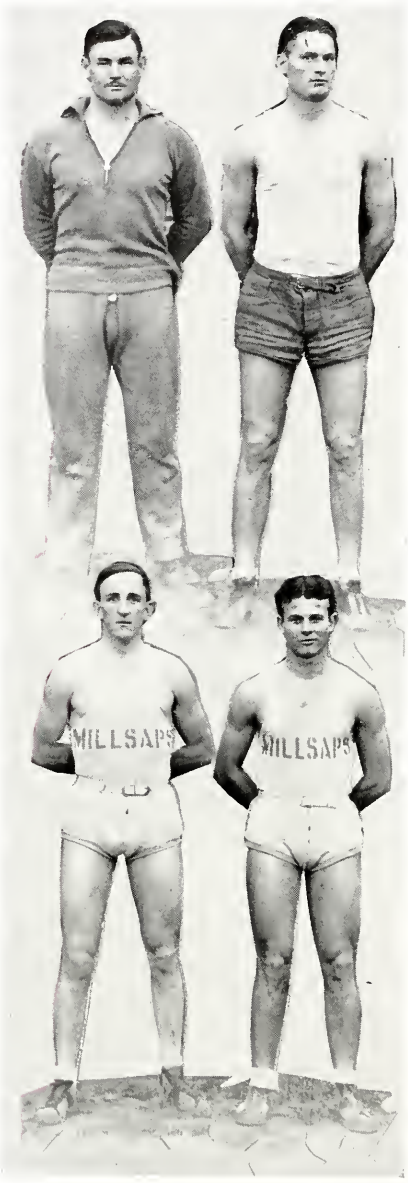
STONESTREET was another Junior College transfer that made good his first year with the Majors. A serious injury that he received during the football season handicapped him considerably during the basketball season, but at that he could hold his own with the best of the forwards. He should cause the enemy quite a bit of trouble next year.

HOWARD LEWIS completed his fourth year as a member of a Millsaps basketball team, and Millsaps is grateful to him for the services that he has rendered to her. Howard was a first-class court performer, and he has turned in many good games in the past four years. He was especially valuable for his defensive ability, but he could also hit them about as well as anyone else. If Lewis uses the same principles in life that he did on the court, there is no doubt about him being successful in whatever profession he chooses.

NOBLIN was another valuable man on the Millsaps squad. With two years' experience behind him he should be outstanding next year. Millsaps fans are counting on you strong, so don't fail them, Noblin.

"LUPINO" LANE, and how that baby could grab them off the backboard. When the ball didn't drop through the wicker it belonged to Lane. He was one of the best guards in the conference. To him goes the honor of playing the most consistent brand of ball of any of the Majors against the Choctaws. He is only a sophomore, and great things are expected of him in the next two years.

"CAL" HULL was the handy man of the Majors. He performed well at forward or center and he was always valuable in a pinch. "Cal" has one more year with the Majors and should be even more valuable next season.



"Punch" McDaniels, who won fame on the gridiron, was the gentleman you saw sitting on the bench with the dignified look and the water bucket. "Punch" was a good manager, and the players appreciate his efforts.

"Pat" Dunaway was a good basketball player, and always gave his best for the Majors' cause. Tall and fast, he was a good defensive and had a good eye for the wicker.

Guess has the ability to develop into a good basketball man, and he should be a valuable man in the next two years.

A hard worker and the determination to win, that's L. B. Jones. L. B. is one of the fastest men on the squad and Millsaps' fans believe that he will develop into a stellar performer with another year's experience.

BOONE, although a reserve, did his share of the work in making the season a successful one. He never cut practice and he should make good before he leaves Millsaps.

ALFORD was another one of those reserves that was willing to do his part and he always did it well. A keen knowledge of the game and the will to do his best, he should make good.

SMITH played the game for the love of the game, and how he could scrap. Another man that is expected to come through with more experience.

Last, but not least, we have "LONNIE" SHELTON. "Lonnie" played his first ball for the Majors this year, but we hope that it will not be his last.

Buhrman, Loflin, Luter, Hutchinson, Johnson, Lewis

Girls' Basketball

Coach Brumfield was handicapped at the beginning of the season by having a squad of green and unexperienced material to work with. Although not as strong as Millsaps' teams of the past, the Majorettes had a good basketball team. It took half the season to get started, but once the girls gained a bit of experience they were hard to best. Most of the girls will be back next year and they should have a good season.

Freshman Basketball

The Freshman basketball team, after a slow start, finally developed into a co-operating machine. Coached by "Goat" Hale they showed ability which varsity squads of the next three years may well use to advantage. They played with dogged persistence, shooting goals from all angles and causing their opponents continual worry.

HARRELL, MARTIN, KHAYAT

Tennis

THE VARSITY TEAM

Most successful of all sports at Millsaps, since its founding perhaps, has been the royal game of tennis. This year, with three out of four last year's varsity back and with three promising new men, the racquet sport is on a par with former years.

Mainstays of the team for the strenuous season were: Benjamin Harrell, senior, probably the hardest driving man on the team. Harrell's tennis was featured by a tremendous service. Lealon Martin, another senior, teamed with Eddie Khayat to form the Number 1 doubles team, and was fair at volleying, was a good lobber, and used a chop drive. Khayat, a junior, was a chop stroke artist, whose play was marked by the ability to score sizzling placements. David Dubard, Ewing Hester, and Gordon Rogers formed the rest of the squad from which the team was drawn, and all developed considerably during the year.

All in all, though hampered by a lack of worthy practice opposition, the Major netmen well upheld the traditions of their sport at Millsaps.

Baseball

Coach Hale's baseball team this year should be the best in years. With the loss of only two letter men from last year's team, and the addition of several strong pitchers and men from the Freshmen team of last year, we are looking forward to a good season. About twenty games have been scheduled.

Many a hit is expected to ring from the big bats of "Fagan" McDaniels, Jakie Miller, Marion Hale, "Dago" Moon, Permenter, Stonestreet, Padgett, and others, while the strong arms of Passo, Dunaway, Miller, and Jones are expected to cause the enemy plenty of worry.

Its the last "Goat" Hale coached team that Millsaps will ever have, and we are betting on him to turn out a great team.

Bell Herds Sheep in Texas

"Eboo" Bell went out on a sheep ranch last summer and applied for a position. When asked what he could do, he replied, almost anything, and in the morning it was decided that he should drive the sheep out to graze. A pony was brought for him, but he stoutly refused it, when the ranchman insisted, saying that he had been the fastest and best-winded sprinter in Millsaps College, and that he could get along. He was told to be in by five o'clock. Six o'clock came; seven, eight, and half-past nine before Bell came in and sank into a chair, exhausted.

The ranchman said, "I told you to take the pony, that you would have trouble with the sheep."

Bell replied that the "sheep were all right, but the lambs gave him trouble!"

"Lambs?" said the astounded man. "Why, I had no lambs in that bunch!"

But Bell insisted that there were, and to prove it took him out to the bunch and there were nine immense, exhausted jack rabbits.

The Event of the Year

A Comedy-Drama

Prologue

On February 18, 1931, just after 11 o'clock at night the most important event of the year took place. On that fateful night the edifice known as the "Gym" had its much maligned existence brought to an end—an end past due for many a moon. Not a tear was shed, and the old barn slid down into oblivion and ashes, not without cheers and plaudits. Not to now become lachrymose, but to preserve from oblivion the memory of that significant night—to commemorate the most important date in the campus history, February 18, 1931, we present, with modest blush and bashful bow, a four-act comedy drama which you may call either "The Event of the Year," or "The Burning of the Barn."

Act I

Time: 1897. Scene: Campus.

First Student (pointing to "Gym"): "Isn't that an eye-sore?"

Second Student (with feeling): "Yes, indeed. It should be subjected to conflagration."

Curtain

Act II

Time: 1931. Scene: Campus.

First Student (of new generation—pointing to "Gym"): "Ain't that a helluva thing?"

Second Student (another descendant—with feeling representing thirty-five years of animosity from father to son): "Yeah. It oughta been burned."

Curtain

Act III

Scene: Campus. Time: Night of February 18, 1931; 11:30 P. M.

First Student (pointing to "Gym"): "Hey, the Gym's burnin'."

Second Student (with feeling representing joy of released desires accumulated in thirty-five years and two generations): *"————————————! ! ? ! !"

*—(There was too much expression in these lines to be adequately expressed on paper.)

Curtain

Act IV

(From the daily papers of February 19, 1931.)

"STUDENTS CHEER AS BARN BURNS"

Apologue

There was no fiddling Nero on that eventful night, but there were 200 students who danced in glee and pajamas.
